TEXT OF THE AMENDED SECTIONS.
Power of the Excise Boards to Revoke Licenses Emphasized and Made Clear by the Bill Intended to Simplify Administration.

Assemblyman Samuel G. French, of the Twenty-ninth District, will introduce the Excise bill prepared by Police Commissioners Roosevelt and Parker and Excise Commissioners Murray and Woodman, and approved by Mayor Strong. The interesting portions of the bill follow:

"A Board of Excise shall not grant any license to any person or persons unless such person is over twenty-one years of age, is a citizen of the United States, a resident of this State, and of good moral character, approved by the Board, and is actually and beneficially interested, as an owner or proprietor of and engaged in, in the business sought to be licensed; nor to any one to sell strong or spirituous liquors, wines, ale or beer upon any premises used as a court house, or upon any premises used or occupied wholly for State, county or municipal purposes; nor to any one to sell strong or spirituous liquors, wines, ale or beer upon any premises unless the Board of Excise is satisfied that said premises is a fit and proper place to be licensed; nor if the license of any former licensee of the premises sought to be licensed has been revoked, or unless the applicant shall state in his application and satisfy the Board of Excise that such former license has been annulled or has never been in force, or that he has not had any interest in the business sought to be licensed during the continuance of such license, unless such revocation has been annulled or set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or that he is powered thereto under the provisions of this act, or upon a determination of a Board of Excise made in a city or town year after such revocation. The requirements of this section as to citizenship shall not apply to any person now holding a license, but a corporation shall not be licensed unless it is organized under the laws of this State.

WELL WORTH TELLING.

A Well-Known Senator Tells a Remarkable Story.

No Possible Doubt as to Its Absolute Truth,

From the High Standing of the Senator.

Higher the Position, More Interesting the Facts.

Our Readers Eager for Just Such Details.

Senator Frank Plumley, of Northfield, Vt., is a man of national reputation. No man to-day stands more prominently before the people of the State of Vermont than he.

A lawyer by profession, he was elected to the House of Representatives in 1882, is Trustee of Schools, Trustee of Northfield Bank, and Trustee of Norwich University (a military school under patronage of the U. S. Government), has been Trustee of the Montpelier Seminary, Chairman of the Republican State Convention, 1886, Delegate-at-Large to the Republican National Convention in 1888, was United States Attorney for Vermont 1889 to 1894, and is now State Senator.

Senator Plumley is well known throughout the United States, having been selected by the Republican National Committee as speaker to stump the State of Michigan for Blaine in 1884, and again in 1888 and 1892 he spoke through the West for the Republican Presidential candidate.

When he came out of the Presidential campaign in '92, owing to overwork he was almost a complete nervous wreck.
To our representative the Senator said:
"In the Fall of 1892 I came out of the Presidential campaign with my nervous system almost broken.

Best and ordinary remedies did not assist me. Some of my personal friends advised me to take a course of Dr. Greene's Nervura, which I did with entire success.
I use Dr. Greene's Nervura, and I will be nervously and mentally sound, and I will be able to do my duty as a Senator, and I will be able to do my duty as a citizen, and I will be able to do my duty as a man."

It is understood that Senator Plumley's cure is radical and complete, and while we congratulate the popular Senator on his recovery, we cannot but feel that this is a distinct triumph for that marvellous medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura, bold and nerve remedy, which is the only remedy for preservation of health, and the only remedy for long continued mental work, and think well of it."

ELOPED FROM ALLAMUCHY

Flight of a New Jersey Sunday-School Superintendent with the Wife of Another.

Trouble Was Brewing in the Church, and Chamberlain Did Not Wait to Be Disciplined.

SOME SILVERWARE ALSO MISSING.

Mrs. Dunn's Companion Wrote to His Family Advising Them to Settle Down to a Retired Life.

Hackettstown, N. J., Jan. 11.—The village of Allamuchy, Warren County, is greatly excited over the elopement of Mrs.
Dunn and Joseph Chamberlain, both prominent hereabout. The case threatens to disrupt the village church and break up the Sunday-school.

Joseph Chamberlain was formerly superintendent of the Sunday-school and had the confidence of the entire village until he began to visit the wife of Mr. Dunn, his neighbor. When it was reported that Chamberlain was likely to cause trouble in the Dunn family the Sunday-school voted him out and the church began to seriously consider the question of disciplining him.

In the meantime Chamberlain made his preparations to leave town, and told his family that he was going to Roseville and Newark to settle some accounts. The same day Mrs. Dunn received a letter announcing the death of her mother in a town of New York State, and requesting that she "come on at once to be present at the funeral and to assist in settling the estate."

Chamberlain expressed great sympathy with Mrs. Dunn, and assisted her in every way to prepare for her departure. The next morning the couple boarded the same train and have not been seen since.

After Mrs. Dunn had left the husband discovered that silverware and other valuables were missing. Mrs. Dunn took a large trunk with her, and it was found that Chamberlain wrote to his family to the effect that his stay would be for an indefinite period, and advised them to sell off the stock and personal effects and live a retired life. He also enclosed some checks to be handed to certain creditors, but as there was no money to meet them they were destroyed.

Certain hot-headed villagers say they would like to get hold of Chamberlain.

Heinzmann Chopped Off His Troublesome Toe with a Butcher's Cleaver.

Blood Poisoning Quickly Followed and the Man Died After Suffering Intense Agony.

AT THE PAIN HAD MADE HIM FRANTIC.

Ordinary Remedies Proved Unavailing and in a Fit of Desperation He Acted Upon the Jocular Advice of a Friend.

Charles Heinzmann, twenty-five years old, of Bergenline avenue and Hanckensplan road, Union Hill, N. J., died on Friday afternoon from blood poisoning, following the amputation of the small toe of his left foot, in order to rid himself of a troublesome corn. Heinzmann had tried about all the corn cures in the market with no good result, and the corn caused him such intense pain at times that he finally decided to amputate the toe. One of his friends had jokingly told him that was the only way in which he could rid himself of the corn. He did not inform his young wife nor his parents of his intention, however, fearing that they would restrain him, but two weeks ago he procured a butcher's cleaver, and placing his left foot on a block of wood, chopped off his toe at the first joint.

After the amputation he carelessly bound up the stump in a piece of cloth, and as the toe did not receive proper attention blood poisoning set in and Heinzmann's foot was soon swollen to twice its natural size. He informed his wife of what he had done, and she called in a physician, but it was too late. The doctor, after a consultation with several medical men, announced that Heinzmann would die, as the poison had extended through his system.

The amputation of his foot was advised, but this was not tried, as he was past recovery. He suffered intense agony before his death.

BISMARCK'S STERN DOCTORS.

He Will Not Permit Him to Attend the A80 Jubilee on January 18.

Berlin, Jan. 11.—It is stated that Prince Bismarck has addressed a letter to the Emperor, begging to be excused from attending the festivities marking the twentieth anniversary of the proclamation of the German Empire, on January 18, because of the opinion of his physicians that the consequent exposure, particularly in the month of January, would be detrimental to his health.

Closing the Colls About O'Donnell.

Newark, Jan. 11.—Bernard O'Donnell, alias "Murphy," of No. 66 Monroe street, who attempted to hold up Druggist Schaefer in his place of business, at No. 20 Pacific street, last night, was held in $1,500 ball for trial by Judge Eggers to-day. He was taken to Police Headquarters, and after he was photographed he was transferred to the jail.

Prince Henry Sick with a Fever.

London, Jan. 11.—Advisers from the British Ambassador expedition say that Prince Henry of Battenberg, who accompanied the expedition, is suffering from a slight attack of fever, and has returned from the front to the headquarters of the expedition. He is under the care of a physician, and is expected to recover. The expedition is quiet and there are no soldiers there.

The Tragedy Resulted from a Quarrel Started While Drinking.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 11.—A tragedy occurred at Unionville last night, by which Samuel Kuff lies dead with a bullet in his brain, and Henry Martin, who did the shooting, is under arrest. The shooting occurred at Martin's house, on Porter street, in Unionville, west of the Farmington River.
Martin lived with his son, Frederick H.

Manufacturing Company. On Thursday afternoon Kuff and Martin went to Martin's house and drank freely, when Mrs. Hattie Traver appeared and drank with them.
They continued drinking and a quarrel ensued, which resulted in the shooting. Martin claims he fired in self-defense. Mrs.
Traver is held as a witness.

In a large business like ours there is a constant accumulation of odd to sell them much below cost.

Every article is well made and
